MINBARINGU SERVICES

Government of Western Australia
Department of Finance

As an Australian Indigenous business, MINBARINGU Services has a high focus on Aboriginal employment training and community engagement.

We work closely with other Indigenous businesses for support with Indigenous staff recruitment and training.

Our Australian Indigenous tradespeople and apprentices represent numerous Traditional Owner Groups.

MINBARINGU Services considers the engagement of Indigenous Apprentices and Trainees to be an investment in the organisation and in the industry at large. We have developed an in-house training and mentoring program for the management of Apprentices which promotes the core Indigenous business values, objectives, and requirements, as well as providing the Apprentice or Trainee with a supportive environment and a strong sense of organisational commitment.

Our innovative employee training and mentoring programme has been designed to provide adequate support for the long-term benefit of all Indigenous employees in the business. The programme has key principles including, "Train the Trainer" and extended support mechanisms which encourage and promote the requirements of different individuals from various T/O Groups and backgrounds.

The MINBARINGU Training programme is well supported by our training partners particularly, Real Futures, NYFL, Ngalla Maya and Ashburton Aboriginal Corporation.
